Joshua Weinstein

A software engineer with a passion for UI/UX

609-731-2870 • joshweinstein92@gmail.com • https://weinstein.dev • Philadelphia, PA

Relevant Experience

Flashpoint                                                                                           Remote
Software Engineer II                                                                  October 2018 - Present
- Maintain and develop core platform using React, immutable.js, Reflux/Redux, GraphQL, and other libraries
- Provide UI/UX recommendations to make data more actionable and users more successful
- Utilize tracking software to gauge the level of user interaction on new features

Booksmart Touring/Daysheets                                                         Philadelphia, PA
Co-founder, Lead Engineer, Advisor                                                    June 2014 - Present
- Plan, organize, and execute the development of the music touring platform utilizing AngularJS and Django RestFramework
- Manage a team of part time employees
- Play a main role in architecture and feature design by translating business requirements into technical specification sheets
- Set groundwork for future development and best practices for the website
- Monitor Amazon Web Services to maintain efficient and stable environments
- Find and interview potential employees

Radial                                                                                  King of Prussia, PA
Senior UI Developer                                                              April 2018 - October 2018
- Improved performance and effectiveness of Javascript device fingerprinting script for fraud detection
- Built Ruby on Rails configuration pages for alerting fraud team of threats
- Updated user interfaces to be more dynamic with a cleaner design
- Investigated the possibility of using Angular 6 for future web development purposes

Oracle                                                                                     Bala Cynwyd, PA
Applications Engineer                                             April - August 2014, April - September 2015
- Developed new UI features to enhance user experience and the underlying application
- Assisted in the planning process of various functional components assigned to my team
- Participated in a scrum environment, accomplishing tasks in short periods of time
- Communicated directly with varying levels of employees to determine best course of action for features

Skills

| | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| JavaScript | AngularJS | Python | Java | Git | Material Design |
| React | CSS/SCSS | Django | C++ | Gulp/Webpack | Bootstrap |
| HTML5 | jQuery | Ruby on Rails | MySQL/PostgreSQL | Jasmine | Atomic Design |

Education

Drexel University                                                                       Philadelphia, PA
BS Computer Science                                                                              June 2016
Human Computer Interactions                                                          Cumulative GPA: 3.80